

SPEAKER INTRODUCTION

(Please read exactly as printed)

Our speaker today has been working with students for almost 20 years. He has delivered hundreds of presentations to over 1 Million students in 48 different states.

He is the author of the student book, “Dude, Don’t be Rude” and is passionate about helping students prepare for life and life challenges.

As much as he loves speaking, his favorite roles are being a husband and a father.

Today, he travels the country speaking to thousands of students in conferences, conventions, school assemblies, and other youth events.

Rob has been the guest on Fox News, ABC, NBC and many radio stations across the country. When he is not speaking on stage, he can be found chasing his second dream . . . . . becoming a WALMART GREETER.

Please welcome ROBB HOLLADAY!

(Note: Speakers last name is pronounced just like Holiday)
